

Notes from Mrs. Greco
January 20, 2005

Our sincere condolences to the Harp family on the death of Denis' cousin, Greg Wolf. Your continued prayers are appreciated. The depth of our faith as a community are a comfort at these times of unexplainable sadness.

OUR KINDERGARTEN OPEN HOUSE HAS BEEN RESCHEDULED FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 30TH AT 12:45 P.M. BECAUSE OF THE INCLEMENT WEATHER FORECAST. PLEASE HELP US TO GET OUT THE WORD IF YOU KNOW A FAMILY THAT PLANNED ON ATTENDING. THANK YOU!

Progress Reports go home today. Remember that these interim reports were added with the intention of letting you know how your child is progressing at the midpoint of the trimester. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact your child's teacher for clarification.

Our next Home & School meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, January 26th. It is the teachers' time to thank you for your support and many volunteer efforts. Please join us for refreshments. Our students will be presenting their Science Fair projects. Each year the projects seem to move to a higher level of scientific investigation. We know that you'll find it interesting. We look forward to seeing you there!

Catholic Schools Week 2005
Faith in Every Student

Catholic Schools Week for 2005 arrives the week of January 30th. The slogan for this year says it all: Catholic schools have faith in every student. We believe in each student's potential - to learn, to grow in virtue and wisdom, to become valued and outstanding member of their church, community, and nation. Catholic schools nurture faith in every student - belief in God and a deeply rooted commitment to God, the Church, and Christianity. Our schedule for the week is enclosed and remember that all are welcome to attend our Open House.

Hot Lunch Reminder: On Wednesday, January 26th, there will be a "Pot Luck Day". This is a change from the menu that went home for January!

There were 3 envelopes sent home last week along with the February lunch calendar. All envelopes were due yesterday, January 19th.

Reminder: Picture Make-Up Day will be on Thursday, January 27th!

Please remember to order your copy of the 2004-2005 IMMACULATE CONCEPTION YEARBOOK now. Because of the cost, there will be NO extras if you do not reserve a copy of our full color edition!

We are still in need of photographs taken on the Philadelphia field trips. Your help is appreciated.
