

Notes from Mrs. Greco
May 2, 2007

May Procession takes place next Wednesday, May 9th. Students are to report to the cafeteria at 6:10pm. Please note that this is a time change from prior years. The procession will begin at 6:30pm. Thank you for being a participant on this prayerful night.

As part of its marketing initiative for Catholic Schools, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia offers an electronic newsletter. We are one of the feature schools in the first edition. You may sign up at <http://www.keepingfaithinmind.org/newsletter/FaithfulTimes.pdf> and you will receive notification when new issues are published to help keep you informed regarding events and activities our schools are involved in.

The Framer's Workroom at 435 Old York Road will hold its second annual Spring Children's Art Exhibition. The following students' artwork was chosen to be displayed: Julia Mayro (K), Vicheata Soth (1), Christopher McDonnell (2), Christiana Turner (3), Sheila Plunkett (4), Annelise Depman (4), Krista Goebel (5), Maria Cipolla (6), Devin McNulty (7), and Regan O'Connell (8). Their families will be invited to the show reception on Saturday, May 19th. The public is free to stop by anytime during regular operating hours: Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday 10am - 6pm, Wednesday 10am - 9pm and Saturday 10am - 5pm. We hope you are able to see this "Young At Art" 2007 Exhibit.

We are now a part of Abitibi's What's Your Goal? Contest. If we can recycle 8 tons of paper in our Abitibi Paper Retriever bin during the 4 months (May - August 2007) of the contest period, we will win another bonus of $200. We'll keep reminding you to recycle your paper. Let's get organized to hit the ground running to reach our paper recycling goal. Thank you!

Save the date for our Home & School Spirit Night on Thursday, May 24th. Dress in your Blue and White and bring the family for pizza and music. Show your school spirit on the night before Color Day.

In this month of May in honor of Our Lady, we are sending home information on Praying the Rosary which we hope you will find useful.
