

Notes from Mrs. Greco
January 24, 2008

Our theme for Catholic Schools Week this year is "Catholic Schools Light the Way." Our Annual Open House takes place on Sunday, January 27th, after the 9:30am Mass. Please plan on joining us and extend an invitation to those you know have expressed an interest in our parish school. Our "help" flyer is online for families to assist with refreshments for this event. Thank you so much for supporting our school community! We are looking forward to both the academic and social activities planned for this coming week.

Last call for our Father (or special relative)-Daughter Dance on Friday evening, February 1st from 7-9pm in our school cafeteria. Please RSVP ASAP!

We are shining bright for Catholic Schools Week because of all the cheerful volunteers who gave of their time and energy on Sunday to take care of some of the more tedious cleaning details in the school. Thank you so much for your enthusiasm. Special thanks to Luci Harp for motivating and organizing our cleaning crew!

Congratulations to our Forensics Team on their performance at the St. Joe's Prep competition. Carlee Cantwell and Evan Wescott placed 3rd in the duo category and Julianne McGoldrick placed 4th in poetry. Josie Gelfin reached the semi-finals in poetry. Great job to all the team! We are especially proud of our new members who made a very impressive showing. Thank you to Mrs. Hagarty & Mrs. Staples for moderating this activity!

Your help is still wanted in helping us collect pictures for our various sites and publications. If you have any photos of activities that occurred during the 2007-2008 school year: the Halloween Hootenanny, Carol Night, Color Day, etc., please send them to the office to the attention of the Yearbook staff. You can also email them to icswebsite@comcast.net. Thank you!

Save the date! The closing liturgy for the Catholic faithful of the archdiocese will be held on Sunday, April 13, 2008. School and PREP families are encouraged to attend.
